BREEF to organise 8 jumping championships within the next five months

04 : 23 PM - 03/12/2013

Manama, Dec. 3. (BNA) -- Bahrain Royal Equestrian and Endurance Federation (BREEF) announced that it will organise eight equestrian jumping championships throughout the next five months. The championships will be full of excitement and competitiveness.

The Federation conformed that the contests will resume on the Military Sports Grounds in Raffa area in Sakhir, after the ban which was imposed on all five governorates in the Kingdom due to Glanders disease has been removed.

The contests will kick off on December 7, followed by seven championships which include National Day Championship on December 21, HH Shaikh Khalid Bin Hamad Al Khalifa Championship on January 18, HH Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa Championship on February 18, BREEF Championship on March 1 and the Season Ending Championship on April 12.

BREEF General Secretary and Equestrian Jumping Committee Head Ghalib Al Alawai praised the support and efforts made by the Supreme Council for Youth and Sport Chairman, Bahrain Olympic Committee President and BREEF Honourary Chairman HH Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa and BREEF Chairman Shaikh Faisal bin Rashid Al Khalifa.

The General Secretary stated the committee is all set to organise the championships, affirming that it is done with all the necessary administrative procedures to organise the championships.

Mr. Al Alawi said "organising such local championships results in improving the efficiency of players and contesters, who will experience strong competition in all the different stages of the contests."

He continued "the participation of the youth in the championships contributes in the discovery of potential talents, which will add to the national gains in sports field."

The General Secretary praised the support and efforts made by the Supreme Council for Youth and Sport Chairman, Bahrain Olympic Committee President and BREEF Honourary Chairman HH Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa and BREEF Chairman Shaikh Faisal bin Rashid Al Khalifa.
