Manama, Feb. 2. (BNA) – Following directives from the Chairman of the Supreme Council for Youth and Sport, President of the Bahrain Olympic Committee and the Honorary President of the Bahrain Royal Equestrian and Endurance Federation (BREEF) Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, preparations are in full swing for HM the King's Cup Endurance Ride Championship for Seniors & Juniors, to be held next Saturday, Feb. 8, at the Bahrain International Endurance Village.

BREEF President Shaikh Faisal bin Rashid Al Khalifa expressed BREEF's keenness to implement Shaikh Nasser's directives to prepare well for the Cup of HM the King, the main supporter of the endurance sport in the kingdom.

He stressed the importance of the race bearing the dearest name in the kingdom –HM King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa.

Chairman of BREEF's Endurance Committee Shaikh Duaij bin Salman Al Khalifa said that HM the King's Cup will achieve the expected results as it will be an opportunity for riders to showcase their distinguished skills and prepare well for international championships.

BREEF Secretary-General Mr. Ghalib Al-Alawi pledged BREEF's keenness to provide all requirements of success for all races of the new seasons, praising Shaikh Nasser's support in this regard.

He wished riders every success.

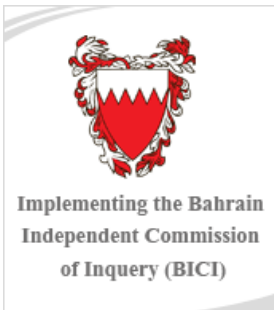

Head of Shaikh Nasser's Media Office Tawfik Salehi asserted that HM the King's Cup will be covered by all media outlets, in line with directives of Shaikh Nasser and Shaikh Faisal, noting Bahrain Sport channel will broadcast the event live.

BREEF Director Haidar Al Zu'bi highlighted BREEF's desire to ensure the success of HM the King's Cup through preparing well for it, noting that the championship will be exciting and will be massively attended.
