Manama, Feb. 3. (BNA)-- Bahrain Royal Equestrian and Endurance Federation (BREEF) continues its preparations to host the season's most prominent race HM the King's Cup Endurance Ride Championship for Seniors & Juniors, which will be held next Saturday, Feb. 8, at the Bahrain International Endurance Village, in line with the directives of the Chairman of the Supreme Council for Youth and Sport, President of the Bahrain Olympic Committee and the Honorary President of BREEF Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al

Khalifa.

Al Khalidiya Stables Captain Shaikh Khalid bin Hamad Al Khalifa affirmed the importance of HM the King's Cup, noting that the race, which carries a dear name for everyone, represents an opportunity for the riders to participate and showcase their skills.

He added that the race creates an atmosphere of strong and fair competition and provides equal chances of winning to all participants, noting that it is one of the most important and distinctive tournaments in a series of tournaments organised by BREEF.

He expected that the tournament will achieve an unprecedented success, specially that all the committees are keen to finish all the organisation-related issues by providing all requirements of success.

He added that he has confidence in the capabilities of the riders of local stables, Royal Endurance Team and Khalidiya stables to achieve positive and outstanding results in this exciting Cup, emphasising the remarkable development achieved by Bahraini riders led by Shaikh Nasser.

He predicted a strong and tough competition, especially with the participation of the most prominent riders of the Royal Endurance Team and local stables, stressing riders' keenness to participate in this competition and achieve high results.

Royal Endurance Team manager Dr. Khalid Ahmed Hassan confirmed the readiness of the team and pointed out the Team's desire to keep their outstanding presence in all races and tournaments in line with Shaikh Nasser's directives to show the Bahraini and Royal Endurance Team's riders real image.

He expressed his appreciation to Shaikh Nasser and Shaikh Khalid for their constant support and he expected an interesting cup with the participation of the best riders.
