Shaikh Nasser attends Compiegne race

10 : 38 PM - 23/05/2014

Paris, May. 23. (BNA) -- Royal Endurance Team captain Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa today attended all stages of the 160-km race in Compiegne, France, held as part of the Shaikh Mansour Bin Zayed Al Nahyan Global Arabian Horse Flat Racing Festival.

Shaikh Nasser offered guidance and advice to riders throughout the five stages of the race in order to motivate them to perform well.

He affirmed the participation in the race with many riders was in line with the team's keenness to gain experience through competing with world champions and achieve good results in order to qualify for the next World Equestrian Games.

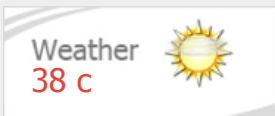

He praised the outstanding performance of the riders who finished the stages of the race.

He pointed out that the Royal Endurance team would participate with other riders in the 120-km race to be held in Compiegne on Sunday.

Shaikh Nasser met the UAE Vice-President, Prime Minister and Dubai Ruler Shaikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, and Dubai Crown Prince Shaikh Hamdan bin Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum and exchanged with cordial talks on the participation of Bahraini and UAE riders in the Compiegne race and preparations for the World Equestrian Games to be held in Normandy, France, next August.

He congratulated Shaikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum on the winning of UAE riders of the race. The veterinary examination for Sunday's four-stage race will take place tomorrow.

Shaikh Nasser is expected to take part in the race.
